Music Group Plans Concert

The Torrance Senior Band participated in the Huntington Park Santa Claus parade last Friday night.

On Saturday night the band took part in the Long Beach All Western Band Revue. On Wednesday, December 5th, the band plans to attend another parade in Inglewood celebrating the opening of the Christmas season.

A free concert is scheduled for

Pancake Fry Scores Big Hit

The Breakfast Committee of the YMCA reports that the "Good Neighbor" breakfast was a huge success. Over eight hundred flapjack breakfasts were served.

An estimated $750 was raised by this event. The money is to be used to make up a deficit in the YMCA's operating budget for this year.

Wednesday evening, December 12th, in the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

SPIRITUAL SERVICE OFFERED

I am a Missionary Baptist minister, have been doing pastoral and evangelistical work the past eighteen years. I moved from Arkansas to California about three months past. I can furnish reference to anyone's satisfaction from ministers, churches and business men in regard to my work.

If there are any shut-ins or anyone else that feel that you are interested in having a special service in your home, please write me at 706 Sartori Ave., Torrance, Calif. My wife and I will be glad to come and talk it over with you. There might be someone that the Lord is laying it upon your heart to help organize a Sunday school or a place of worship for your children and other children, if so we will be glad to help you in this. Be sure to give your exact location so we can find you. We feel that the Lord is in this or we would not be making this appeal.
